

Speaker: Miguel José Segarra Martínez

Institute: DRAGADOS S.A. (ACS Group)

Country: Spain

As Head of RDI at DRAGADOS, ACS Group, Miguel is responsible for the overall company Research and Innovation development and management, with a heavy component in transport infrastructure. He also chairs the R&D Committee of the Construction Companies of the ACS Group, which includes specialist companies for the transport infrastructure sector.

Miguel has more than 20 years of experience in research and innovation with 10 in activities related to transport infrastructure.

At DRAGADOS, he has managed and supervised many project in this areas, which relate, among others, to:

- Design and Construction of infrastructure
- Maintenance of Infrastructure
- Adaption of infrastructure to new demands (including structures like bridges, tunnels, etc.)
- Materials, pavements, mixes, etc
- Health and Safety at work sites
- Advanced Equipment for O&M

In addition, he is a member of the Council of ENCORD, the European Network of Construction Companies for Research and Development, where DRAGADOS is chairing the newly created transport infrastructure working group.

Miguel also leads the reFINE initiative (research for the Future Infrastructure Networks in Europe), providing R&D roadmaps for the construction and O&M of transport infrastructure sector under the umbrella of the European Construction Technology Platform (ECTP).

He is member of the Board of Trustees of the Spanish Construction Technology Platform (PTEC) where DRAGADOS also leads the Transport Infrastructure Working Group.

He is also Reader of the Master in Automotive Engineering in INSIA (the Institute of Automotive Research) at the Polytechnic University of Madrid (UPM).

Title of the presentation: Industrial perspective on transport infrastructure maintenance